

22nd World Jamboree - Sweden

July 27-August 7, 2011

If you are a Boy Scout or Venturer who will be between the ages of 14 and 17 on July 27, 2011, -- that is, specifically born between July 25, 1993, and July 27, 1997 -- you may be qualified for one of the coolest Scouting events you'll ever attend.

The upcoming World Scout Jamboree in Rinkaby, Sweden, promises to be one of the best ever. With 40,000 Scouts expected to attend from six continents and more than 114 countries, it's going to be a world-class event, one you can be a part of if you start planning now.

At Rinkaby, you will get to live and learn with fellow Scouts from around the world. You'll be housed in tents along with the BSA contingent, but you'll soon venture out to mingle with tens of thousands for two weeks of activities and adventure. That's right, a world fellowship exercise on an enormous scale!

It's Sweden's turn at a World Scout Jamboree -- held once every four years -- and it is a special window of opportunity for you, too. It's good to start your planning early.

Cost:

The basic package plan is $3,525 (plus a nonrefundable application fee of $10). The basic package includes travel from the assigned gateway city, all meals, unit and patrol equipment, accident and sickness insurance, regional and national office administrative/program support, and buses for ground transportation to/from the jamboree site.

Cost does not include travel to or from the gateway city. The basic package does not cover the cost of ticketing because of early or late departure from the jamboree site due to medical emergencies, family emergencies, and/or problems based on our Code of Conduct.

Assume that there will be additional costs for Uniforms, Patches, T-shirts, and spending money.
